Pennsylvania

My dear Madame:

Your letter asking for information of the Dozier family in Kentucky has been received.

On noting the information you had received from the Pennsylvania Historical Society I consulted the History of Sangamon County, Illinois, which we happen to have in our library. There I found practically the data you gave in your letter, with some additional data as to the descendants of John and Nancy Dozier.

I then consulted several other authorities which give the names of early settlers, in an effort to find the names of the parents of John Dozier, and if possible, the name of his wife. In the Kentucky Land Grant Book I found the names of John, James Ingo and Zachariah Dozier, all of whom made entries of large tracts of land in Nelson County Kentucky on Rough Creek, and also in other localities in the District. These entries were made between 1781 and 1785, at least those in Nelson were.

The list of marriage records for Nelson County show that one John Dozier married Elizabeth Lancaster, daughter of Raphael, July 5, 1785. I do not find there the marriage of either James Ingo or Zachariah Dozier, and Nelson County is some distance from Montgomery, but returning to the Sangamon County History I do find that the oldest child of John and Nancy Dozier was James I., and he had among others, sons James I., Junior, John and Zachariah.

The inference would seem to be that your John Dozier was either the son or nephew of James Ingo, and that his son James I. named his children for his father and uncles. That of course remains to be proved.

Going back farther, I find that there were Doziers in Richmond, Lancaster, Westmoreland Counties, Virginia. You no doubt have access to records of those counties.

My dear Mrs Crothers,

The name Lomax as well as Dozier places your family in Westmoreland Co. originally, I expect to go there to do some work Monday and will look over the Dozier records while there and let you know what I find and also what the charge would be ~~f#ntbathngnthe~~ Later a contraction . It is some times used in the Cadwalarder family.

Very sincerely yours,

E. Chester Carl Peirce

My dear Mrs Crothers:

I inclose a few Dozier records

The Lancaster records of this family are all after 1810 and do not refer to the name you give.

I am quite sure the information you wish will be found in Westmoreland Co. as the name was quite well known there in the early days and the Walkers and Belfields of that Co. were among its best people.

I do genealogical work in all counties of the Northern Neck of Va. and shall be glad to trace the line for you.

Very sincerely yours,

E. Elizabeth C. Peirce.
