THE HOARE GENEALOGY---

Research given to Clara Hoar Downey Caughey-
Pittsburg, Pa.

In the Recorder's Office in Lancaster Court House, Vol. N, Page 66, you will find the deed for 250 acres of land, recorded Feb. 22, 1769, owned by Robert Hoare and his wife Sarah Hoare. It is well worth seeing. Other information can be had, from one of the histories of Lancaster Co., written by Mr. Linville, by which you can trace your own line.

Our families came from England in 1728. The New England families came over in the 1600's, about 1623 or about that time. Whether the families are nearly related or not, we cannot vouch. There is a tradition in the families, that some of those in Penna. went to visit the New England family.

My sister, Miss Laura Hoar, went to visit Senator Hoare (George Frisbie) in Worcester, Mass. and he told her no one need be ashamed of the name, that in England they had held every office outside of Royalty. For many years there had been a bank in London run by the Hoares. He showed her books in which many distinguished men's pictures were of the Hoare family. He also showed her the family crest, or Coat of Arms, which was an escutcheon upon a silver shield, an eagle displayed with a double head-or two heads, within a bordure, engrailed blue. Crest-an eagle's head erased, in silver, a gold ring in its beak. Motto- 'Constanter'.

We do not know if we would be included in this or not-but it is borne by many families of the name, in the 'Shires' of England, and Ireland. This I got from a book sent me by Senator Hoare. He made many trips to England to find all he could about the
